

A Real Life Success Story

It is quite true that a teacher is not good until his students are proven successful. The series of success stories is, in a way, a showcase that I proudly present to the world.

Margit started learning Feng Shui by reading a book. She tried to use the methods introduced by the book without much improvement. Then one day, her husband Peter found my website and enrolled for her to attend my 4 day Feng Shui Seminar in Niagara Falls in November 1998. After the first day, she called her husband with excitement, "Now I can throw that Feng Shui book away."

After the seminar, Margit enrolled in all the three levels of the correspondence course. She repeated the seminar in March 1999 in Niagara getting more insight. All along she has been asking a lot of good questions and showed talents in learning. Her postings to the mailing list gave people an impression of someone who has been practicing for years.

In Spring, 1999, her family started implementing her Feng Shui cures in the Lake Obabika Lodge, a family business to provide chalets for vacationists. What did she accomplish?

1. The business started 9 years ago and it has been lackluster. The front door has double 7 supported by the lake and distant mountains. The office is in the NE with 5-9 and the entrance to the office is in the East with 9-5. She opened a door to the office within the double 7 section to tap in the good energy from the facing palace. It is just simple as that. According to Peter, three days after the new entrance to the office was in use, the telephone never stopped and the entire summer was fully booked. This is something that has never happened in the previous years.
2. Peter and Margit have a young daughter Sarah, who sleep-walks. After applying ingenious Feng Shui cures in her bedroom, she stopped sleep-walking.
3. Peter has sleeping problems. After the appropriate things done in the bedroom, he sleeps very well now.

Feng Shui did not make Peter and Margit billionaires (at least not yet). I feel that it is a much better story than the creation of a billionaire.

Joseph Yu B.Sc. 余若愚 was born during the second world war in a small village in South China. He spent his childhood as a country boy and did not receive any formal education until he came to Hong Kong at the age of eleven. A lot of people suggest to him that he should create a story of learning Astrology and Feng Shui in early childhood from a monk as do many a famous Feng Shui Master. He prefers to tell the truth.

Yu studied Mathematics and Physics in the University of Hong Kong in the early 1960's. He abhorred all kinds of superstition and vowed to destroy such absurd beliefs of ignorant people. He then frequented libraries, trying to find fault with Astrology and Feng Shui from ancient books. The deeper he went into the subject, the more excited he became about the rich legacy of ancient Chinese culture.

Whether or not to become a professional astrologer and geomancer or continue in the fields of mathematics and physics, became a constant dilemma. Astrology and Feng Shui have been viewed as superstition by their skeptics. Astrologers and Feng Shui masters have been linked with fraud for centuries.

Someone wrote in his book, "If more knowledgeable men provide true Astrology and Feng Shui services, the ignorant and fake 'professionals' will vanish." Sharing the same view, Yu decided to provide useful services and correspondence courses at an affordable price.

While Joseph Yu was a mathematics teacher after his graduation, he was lucky to have as his neighbor one old Feng Shui master. This old master was very kind to disclose a lot of secrets of the five arts to him even though he was not one of the old master's apprentices.

In one Chinese New Year party at the old master's home, the master said to his disciples, "This young man, though not officially under my care, has learned more than most of you because he has a logical mind and dares to argue with me on various issues."

The old master passed away a few months later. Joseph Yu did not feel comfortable in the company of the disciples of this good master. He is grateful, but circumstances make it impossible to express his gratitude towards the master who passed on to him a lot of invaluable knowledge.
